

North Valley Chinese School

From time to time, your student's teacher or representatives of our school will take pictures and/or video recording of students in action in and outside the classroom to record classroom or group activities and student interactions. The photographs and recording might be used by your student's teacher to assess her teaching methods or for training use. Selected photos and video clips might be used in our yearbook and/or used to introduce our classes, program, or school to other audience in informational events or for fundraising purposes. Your permission is greatly appreciated.
